Call for Judges

Thank you for showing interest in serving as a Judge for the 1st Geeta International Moot Court Competition. This event brings together lawyers, academicians, and professionals from across the globe who are passionate about international law and human rights. The success of the Competition depends on the support of such dedicated individuals, and we truly appreciate your contribution.

Who Can Apply?

Judges must hold a Bachelor's degree in Law and have at least one year of experience in international law or related legal fields. We welcome applications from practitioners, academicians, Local activities, and professionals from related backgrounds.

Role of Judges

- Judges will evaluate oral rounds.
- You may judge as many rounds as your schedule allows.
- A confidential Bench Memorandum will be shared to guide judges on the legal issues in the case.
- It is important to read and follow the Competition Rules, especially those related to judging and scoring.

How to Apply?

- Submit your CV/resume and a short paragraph explaining your relevant experience. (Google link to be provided) - Once all team registrations are complete (by the first week of October), you will be asked to fill a second form mentioning:
  - Any conflict with registered teams
  - Your availability during the competition week

Why Judge?

- Connect with global experts in international law and human rights
- Enhance your professional development
- Be part of stimulating discussions on legal issues - Receive appreciation certificate (soft copy)
- Be part of the Advisory Board in various Centers or Moot Court Society of GIL
